

I wish to add my concern to that of many other New Jersey residents regarding possible changes to this state's Do Not Call List. This has been a very successful program, providing freedom from numerous telemarketers, who primarily call evenings and weekends...and are most persistent. If we wish to do business with any company, all we have to do is phone them, which gives us the choice. Thank you.
Nancy J. Lang